

Name _____

Color the lion's mane orange.

Color the lion's ears brown.

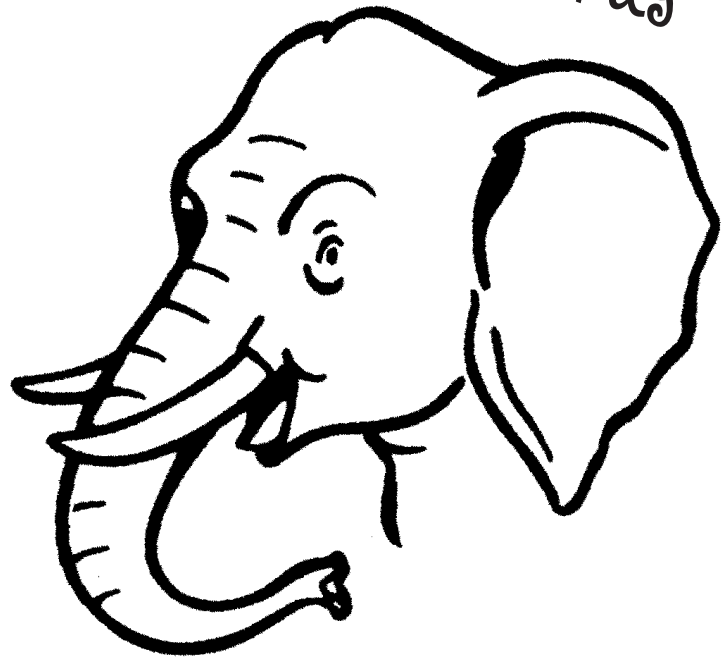

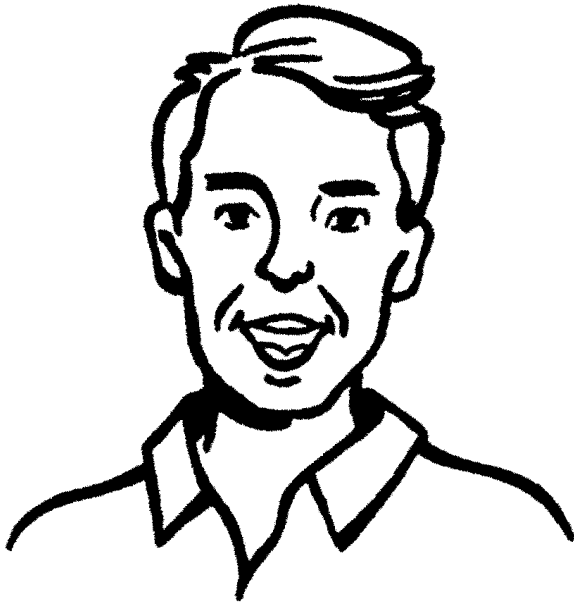

Color the lion's mouth red.

Color the lion's face tan.

Color the lion's eyes blue.

Name _____

Draw circles around what the man and elephant see with.

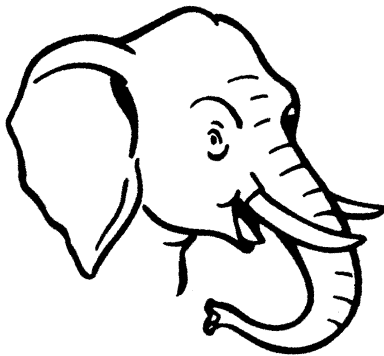

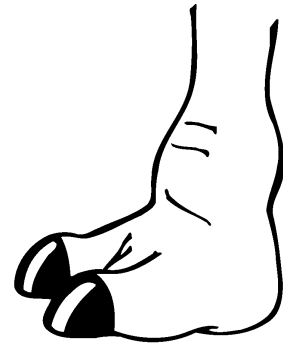

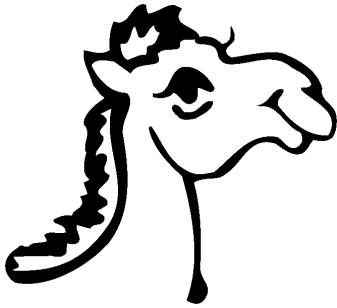

Draw squares around what the man and elephant hear with.

Draw a triangle around what the man and elephant taste with.

Draw an X on what the man and elephant smell with.

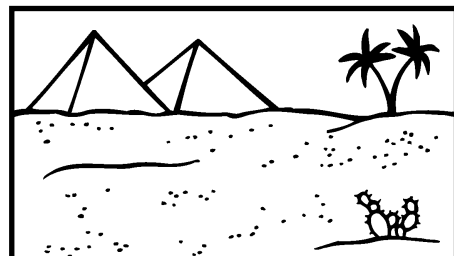

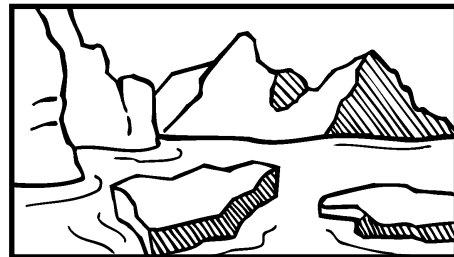

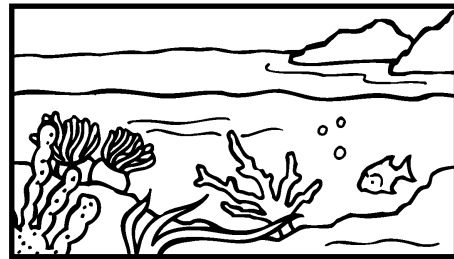

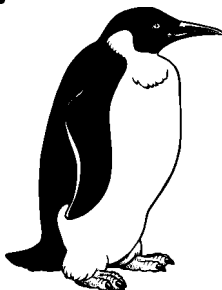

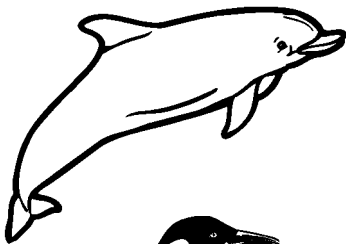

Name _____

Draw a line from the animal to its foot.

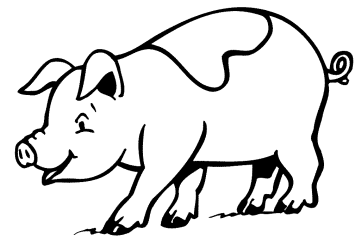

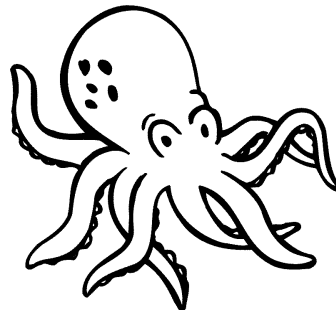

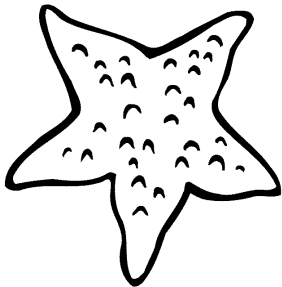

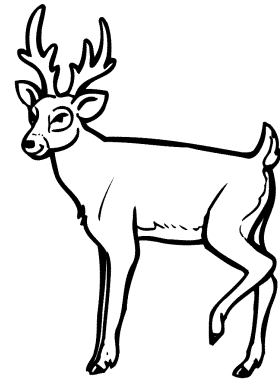

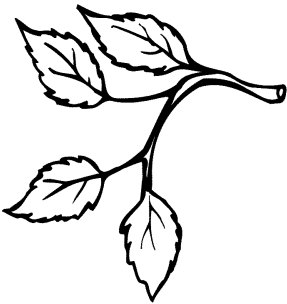

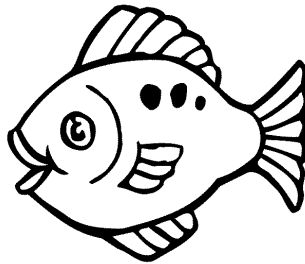

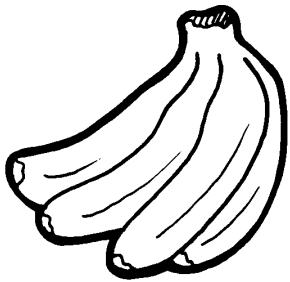

Name _____

Draw a line from each zoo animal to its natural habitat (home).

Name _____

Color the things that herbivores
(plant eaters only) eat.

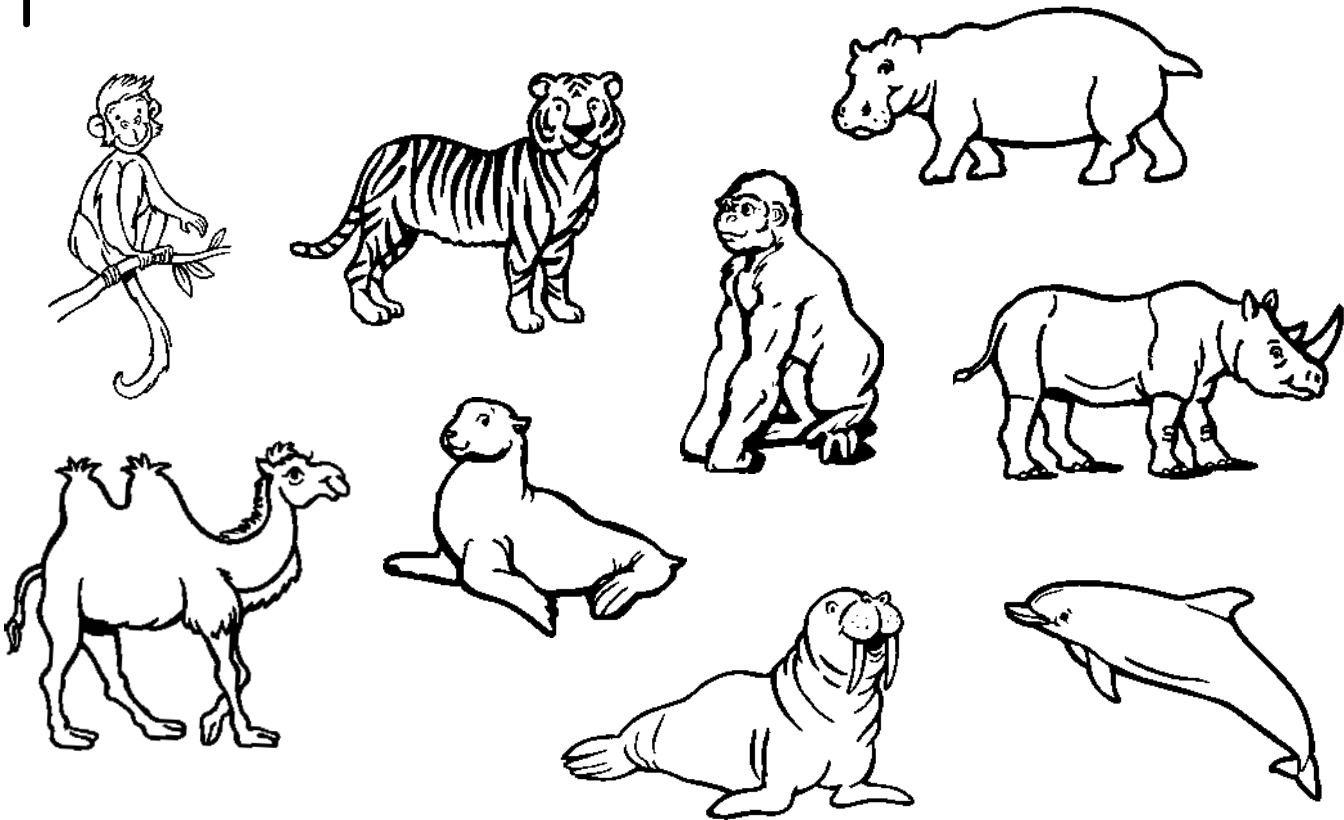

Which of these is an herbivore? Circle it.

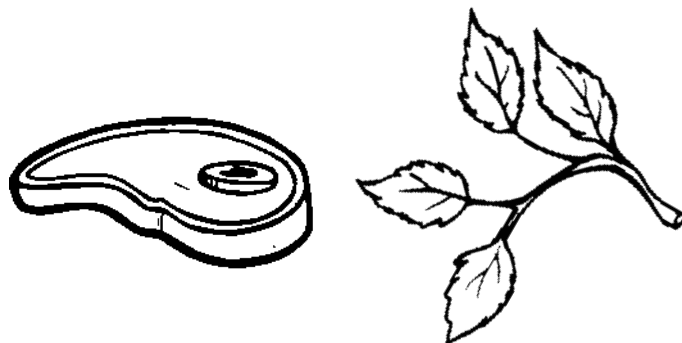

Name _____

A carnivore eats meat. An herbivore eats just plants. Use your Fact Files to circle the carnivores (meat eaters) pictured below.

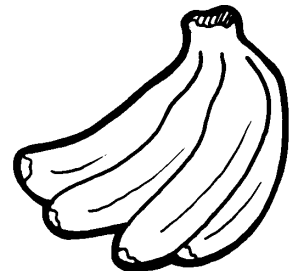

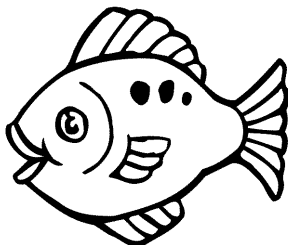

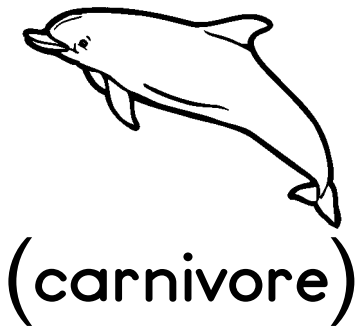

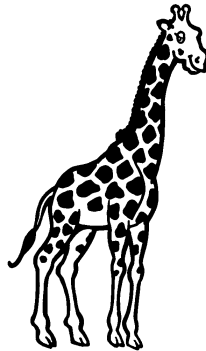

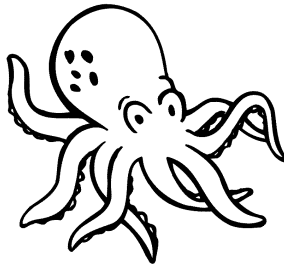

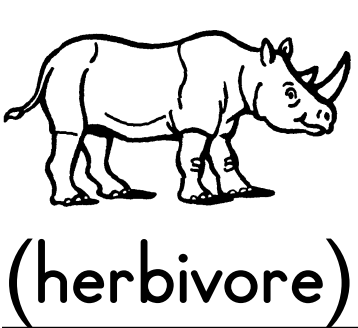

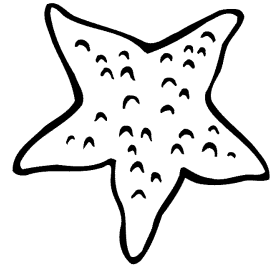

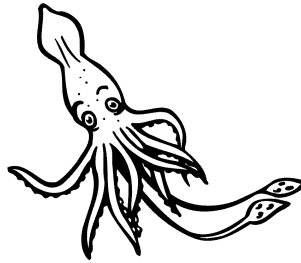

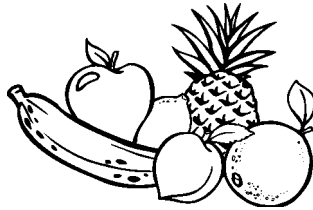

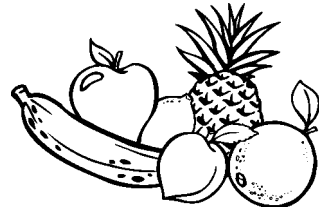

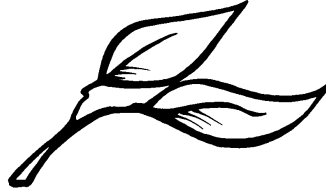

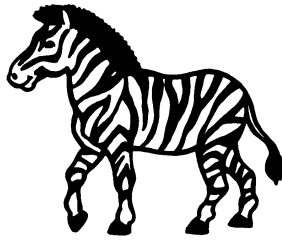

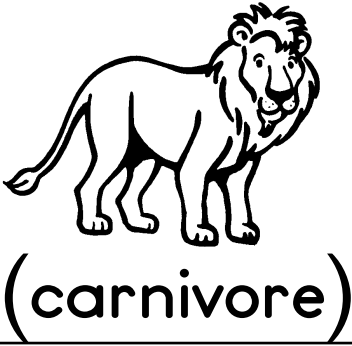

Which kind of food do carnivores eat?

Circle it.

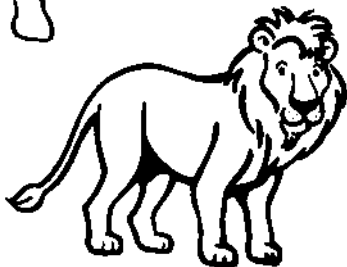

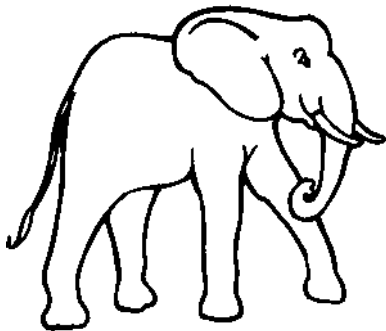

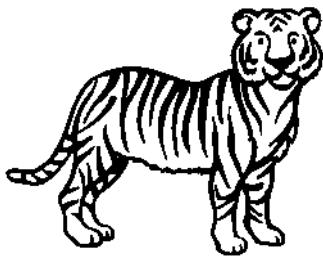

Name _____

Look at the picture. Circle which food the animal likes to eat.

Name _____

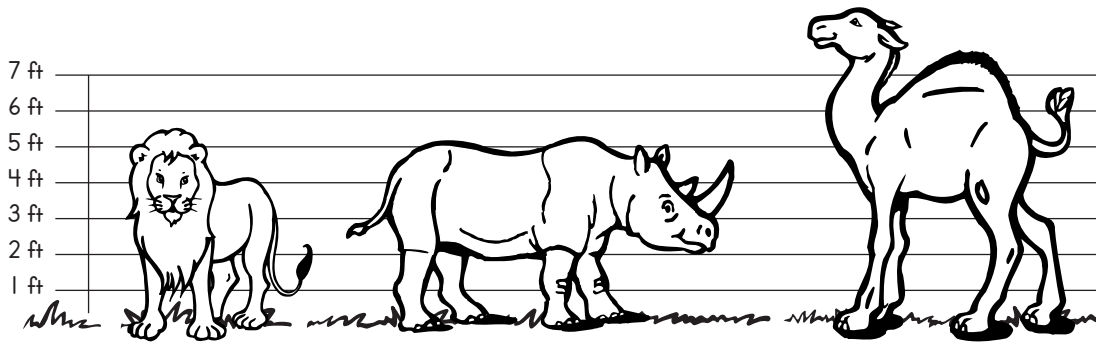

An omnivore eats both meat and plants. Use your Fact Files to find and circle the omnivores below.

Here are some things omnivores eat: Color them.

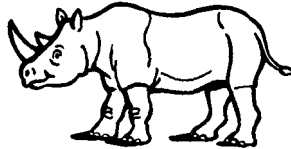

Name _____

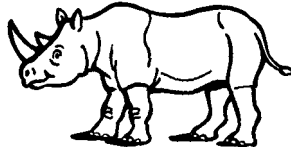

Compare the animals above.

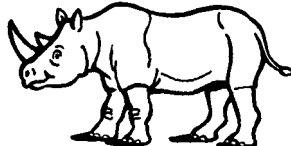

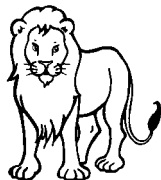

Which one is tallest?

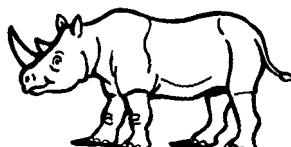

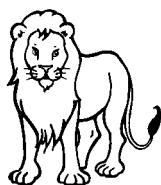

Which one is shortest?

Which animal's shoulders are about four feet high?

Are any of the animals less than three feet tall?

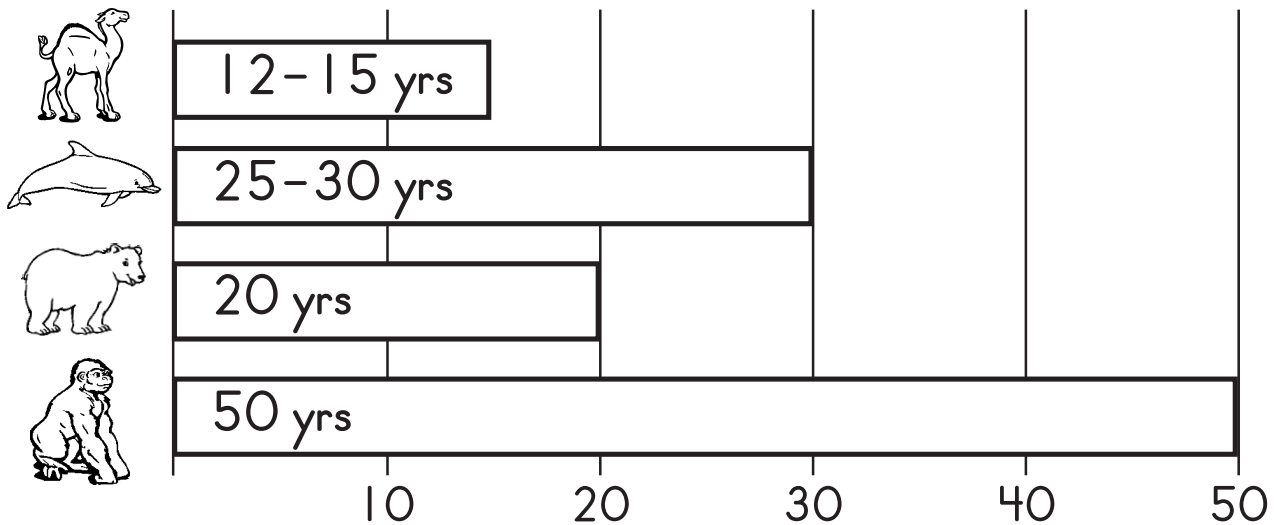

yes

no

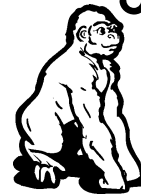

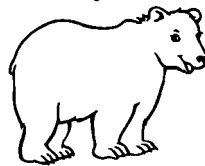

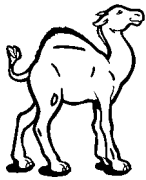

Name _____

Who lives longer?

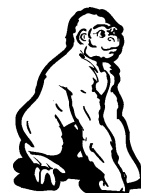

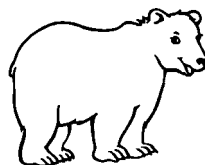

KINDERGARTEN • ZOO ANIMALS • SCIENCE • 010

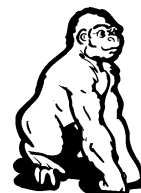

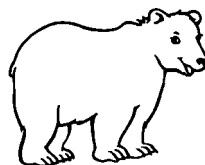

Which animal will probably live the longest?

Which animal will probably have the shortest life?

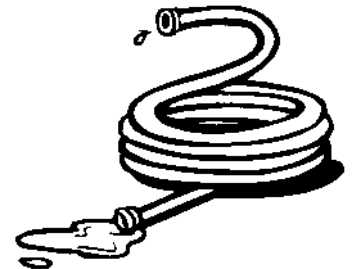

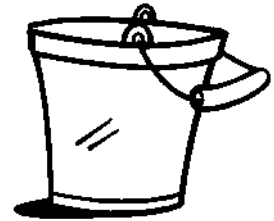

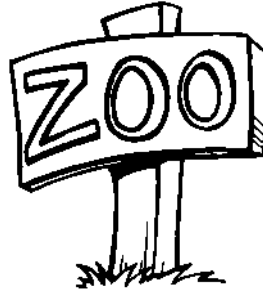

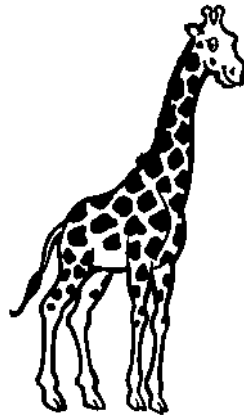

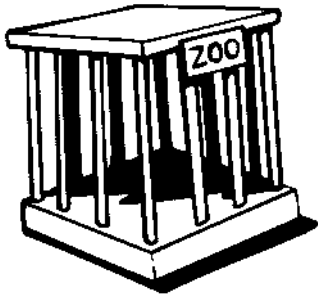

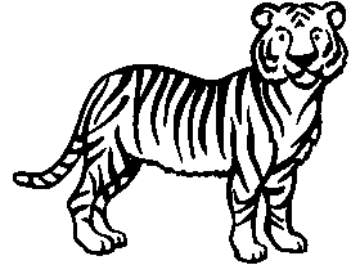

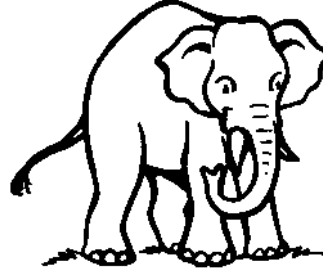

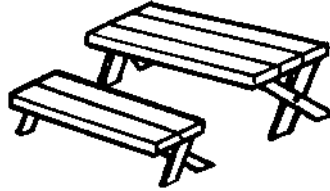

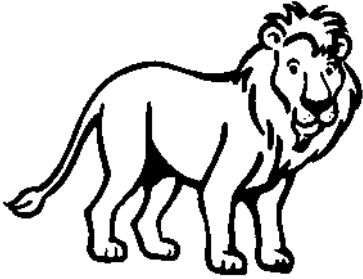

Which animal is expected to live about 20 years?

SKILL: COMPARE ANIMAL LIFE SPANS

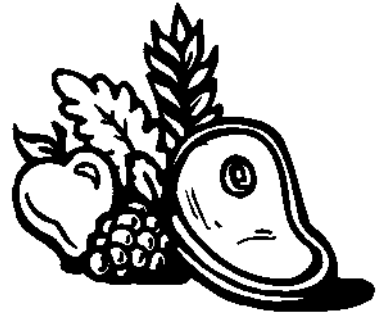

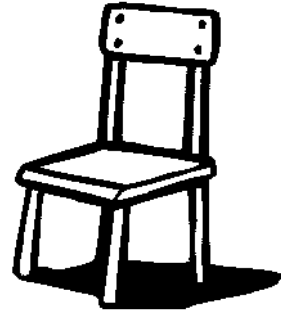

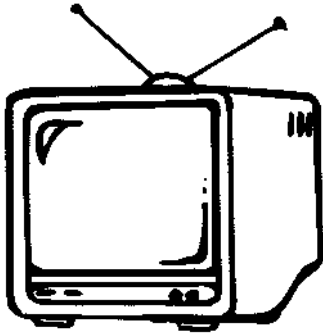

Name _____

Circle the living things on this page.

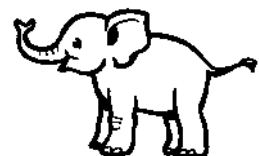

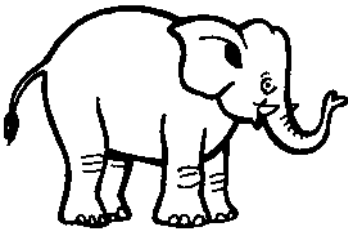

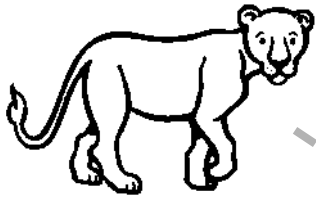

Name _____

Circle the things on this page that zoo animals need to be healthy.

Name _____

Many of the baby animals at the zoo look like their mothers, only smaller.
Draw a line from the mother to the baby.

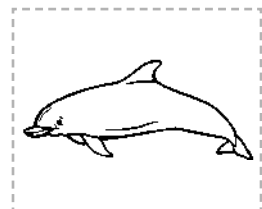

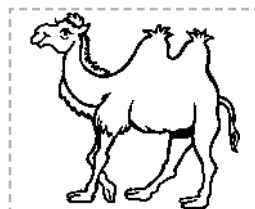

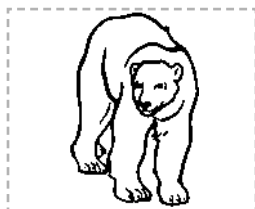

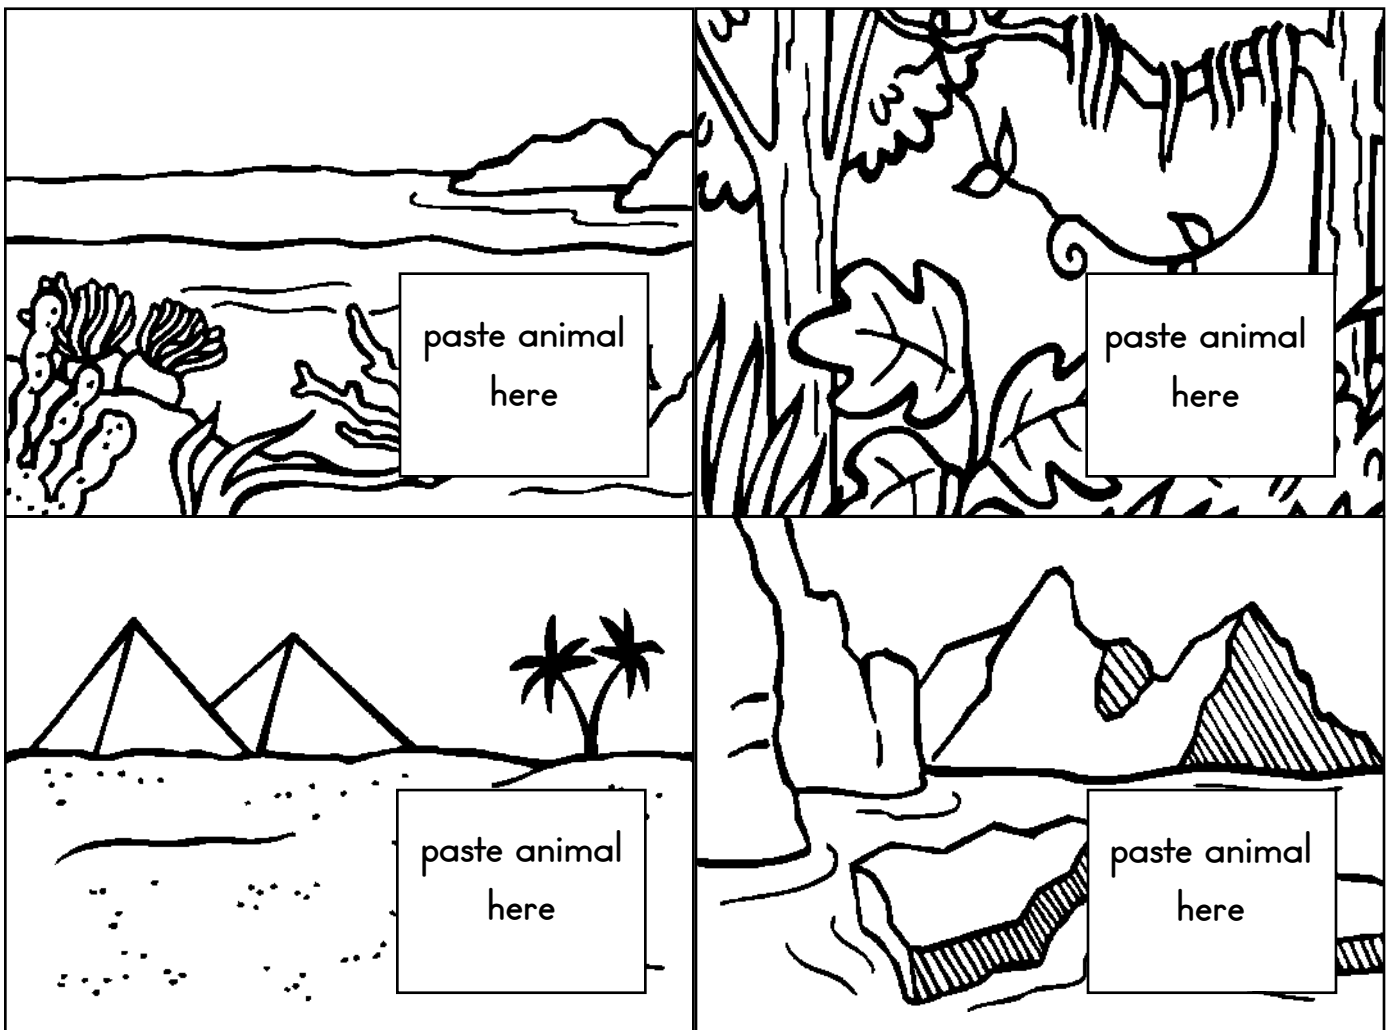

Name _____

Which of the following zoo animals have spots or stripes? Circle them, then draw on their stripes or spots.

Name _____

Before animals come to the zoo, they live in many places. Color these pictures, then cut the animals out and paste them into the correct scene.

Name _____

In each row, circle the animal that usually swims. Then color the pictures and trace the words.

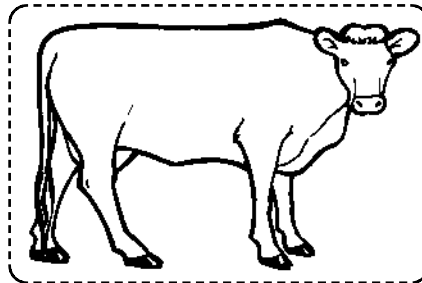

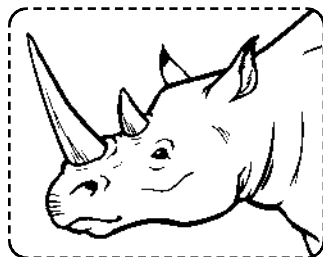

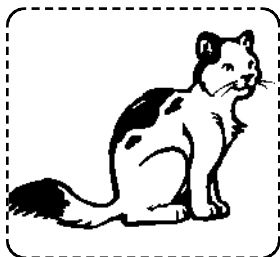

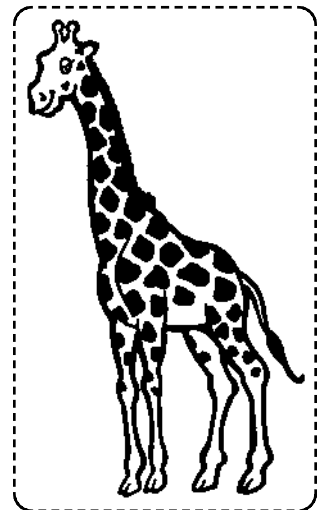

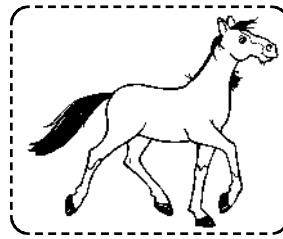

Some animals swim.

Name _____

Some animals live in the zoo and others live on farms. Color and cut out the animals below, then sort into Zoo Animals and Farm Animals. Trace the headings, and paste them and the animals on a separate piece of paper.

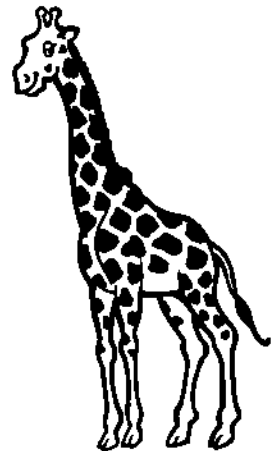

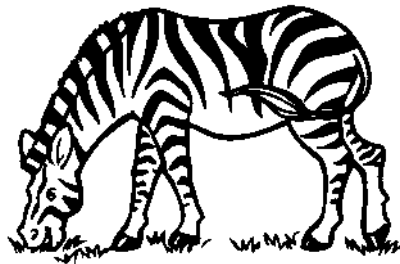

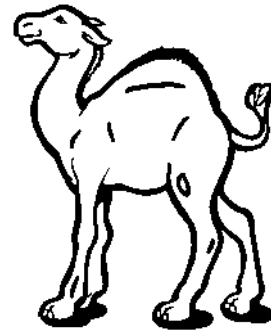

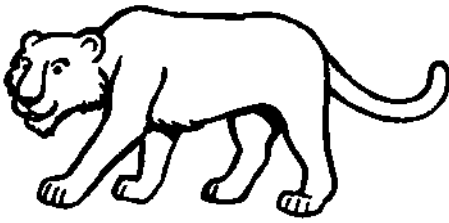

Zoo Animals

Farm Animals

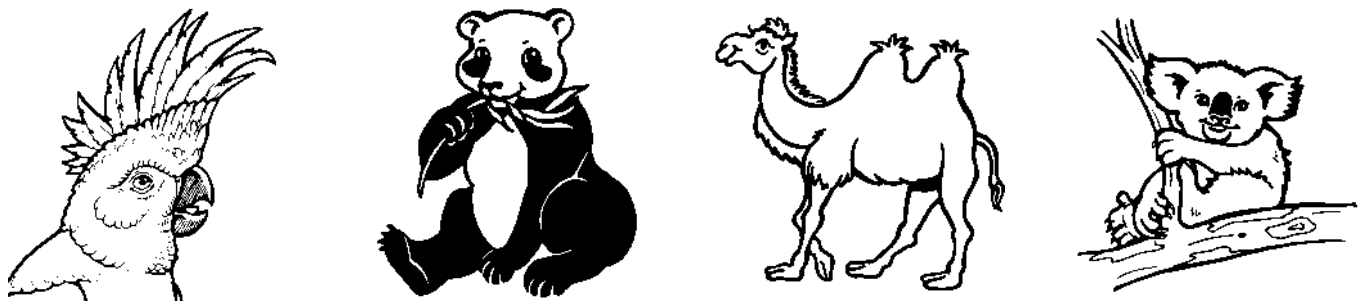

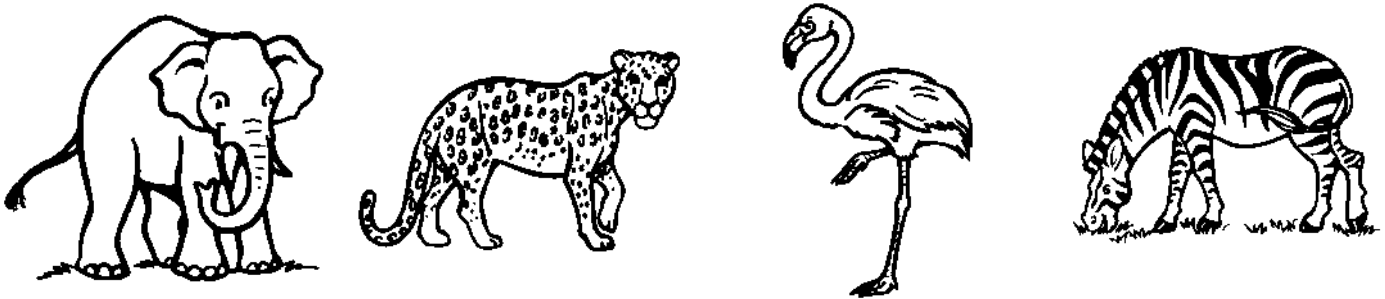

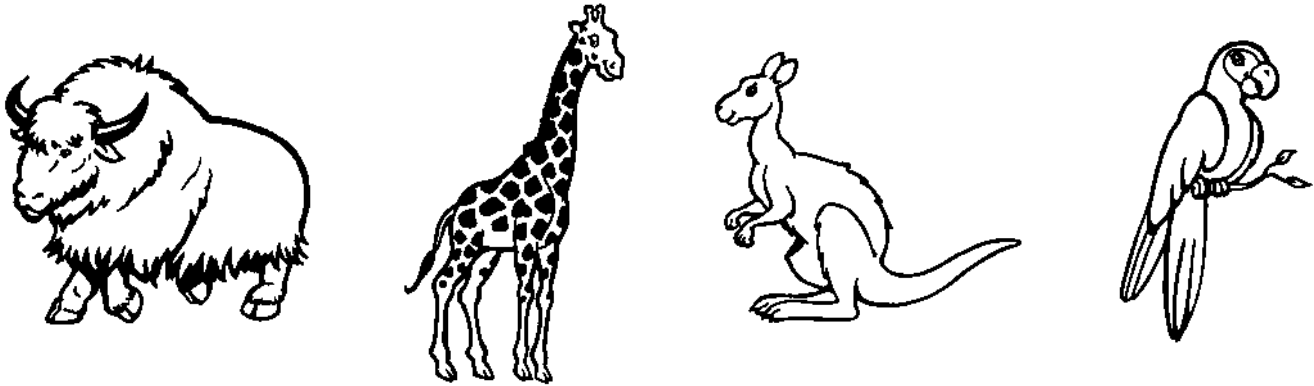

Name _____

Circle the mammals with a red crayon. Circle the birds with a blue crayon.

Name _____

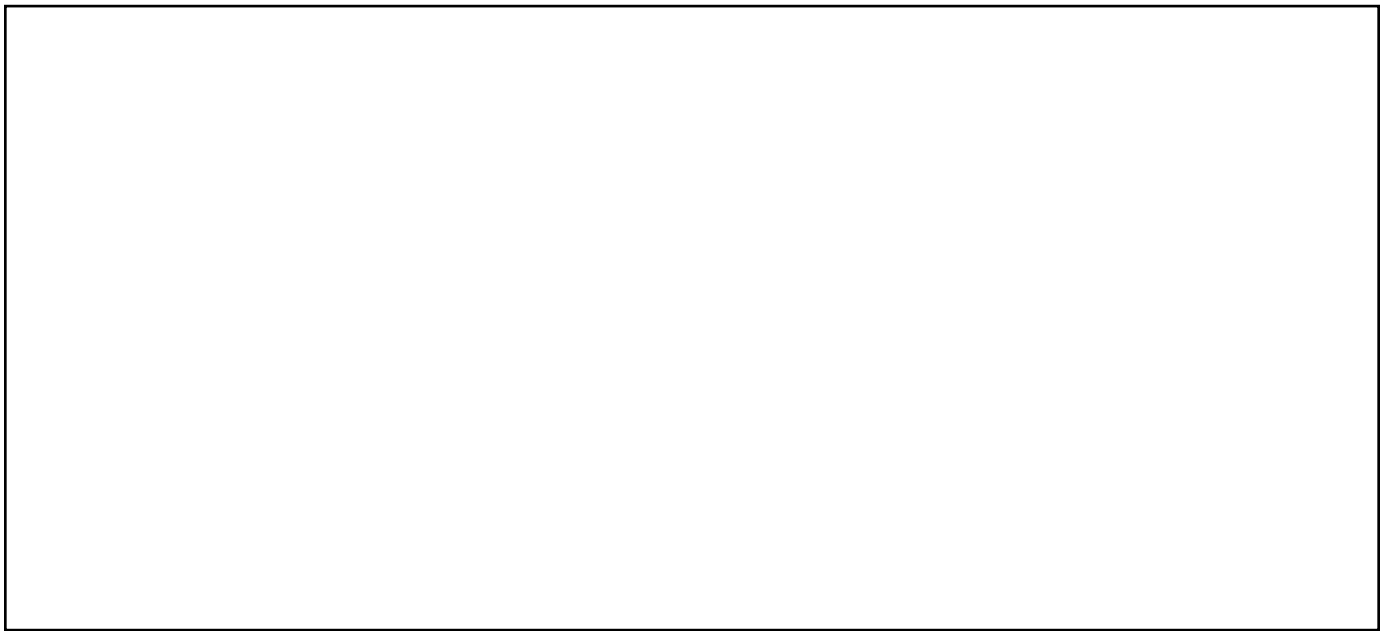

In each row, circle the animal that can fly. Then color the pictures and trace the words.

Some animals fly.

Name _____

Look in your Fact Files to name this zoo animal: I am an herbivore and can weigh up to 1815 kilograms. I can run very fast. I have two horns that I use for defense and display.

Draw a picture of this zoo animal.

Write its name.
